

Tune in! Culinary show features Touchmark executive chef

Touchmark Executive Chef James Grimes will make a guest appearance on Dining Out in the Northwest on KTRV-TV

Saturday, May 2 at noon.

Part of the Chefs of the Treasure Valley series, the show provides local chefs with the opportunity to showcase their talents and present tasty recipes. Chef James will share an old-family-style recipe of chicken breast with sauerkraut and sparkling wine. Tune in!

Dining Out in the Northwest is sponsored by Food Services of America® and hosted by Jeni Williams. Touchmark Executive Chef James Grimes attended the College of the Desert, School of Culinary Arts in Palm Desert, California, and later worked under the direction of French and Italian chefs at restaurants in southern California. He is actively involved in the Boise-area community, including helping host the recent 2009 Idaho Wine Competition at Touchmark.

Touchmark at Meadow Lake Village
Retirement Community

4037 E Clocktower Lane • Meridian, ID 83642
208-888-2277 • MeadowLakeVillage.com

To enrich people's lives.

